

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Master in Education Major in Measurement and Evaluation

The Center for Educational Measurement, Inc., (CEM), a non-stock, non-profit organization providing educational measurement and research services to schools, believes in and supports the importance of measurement and research in becoming an effective institution.

Recognizing the need for expertise in these areas, CEM has collaborated with Miriam College in awarding full tuition scholarship for seventeen (17) qualified applicants to undertake the Master in Education major in Measurement and Evaluation program to commence in January 2020.

Description of the Program

The Master in Education major in Measurement and Evaluation is a 17-month non-thesis program which starts January 2020 and ends May 2021. Combining the study of research design, testing and assessment, and evaluation, the program is designed to prepare students for research and academic careers in education, social sciences, and human services.

Coverage of the Scholarship

All successful applicants will receive full scholarship which provides tuition, basic, and miscellaneous fees for the entire duration of the program. The scholarship will not cover other costs such as instructional materials and living and travel expenses.

Scholarship Eligibility and Requirements
